VALUES+ BOUQUET THIS WEEK

Name of the blossom:

Who is the greater devotee

Sweet notes:

Lord Vishnu wanted to show to the world who is his great devotee. And who did he choose for this particular pastime? None other than His dear Narada.

What you can do:

The value focused here is faith in God. Talk with your child and try to see if he or she is more devoted to god after all the sessions covered on this value. The session includes hands-on activities as well as games.

Name of the blossom:

Vrindavana

Sweet notes:

Continuing our series on heritage places of India, this week your child will be taken on a journey through Krishna’s birthplace and the places He performed His childhood pastimes.

What you can do:

The last few weeks has seen your child meditating a lot on Krishna by hearing His various childhood pastimes. And to reinforce the stories further, your child will be shown the places where they happened over 5000 years ago. Make sure you plan your next vacation by visiting this Holy Land.
